At the Designer Showhouse of New Jersey last weekend, ...

Joel Woodward of Lichten Craig Architects says every room needs contrast in textures, surfaces, and colors. In his upstairs guest room, tartan walls and touches of lavender evoke a Scottish retreat.

Comments:

"Really loved the Lichten Craig/Joel Woodard guest bedroom with its cozy wool plaid wall upholstery. Very chic and tailored. The mix of traditional and contemporary in the furnishings and the art is outstanding."

"The Joel Woodard room is stunning. Love the plaid walls and the lavender is a great unexpected touch. Also love the unexpected paint colors - the brown that continues on the trim - very new thought than just doing the usual cream/white trim. Very cozy."
